

BEST POSTER AWARD

Phoenix 2017, International Medical Student Conference Mangalore

Phoenix 2017, International Medical student conference was organized in Mangalore from 22nd – 26th March 2017. Student participants were from more than 200 different Universities across the globe with 48 students from across the world; prominently Hungary, Italy, Russia and other European Countries. 65 students presented scientific posters. Miss Sarina Zehra (1st Year MBBS Student, Era's Lucknow Medical College & Hospital, Lucknow) got 2nd best poster award. She presented work on metabolic pathway of Glaucoma and demonstrated as to at which point in JAK –STAT pathway. Intervention would be useful by using a naturally occurring substance gingerol, which is found in ginger, commonly used in our homes.